

Dear Friends,

It gives me great joy to welcome you to Bhubaneswar for the 44th Biennial Conference of CMAI. This will be a wonderful time of fellowship as Christian health professionals to renew, revisit and reinvigorate ourselves for the future.

It will be a pleasure to have many of you at this unique conference in the beautiful city of Bhubaneswar, 1st Smart City in India, capital of Odisha, known for its rich heritage and varied cultural norms. As members of the Association, please participate and make this event a fruitful one.

Dr Bimal Charles
General Secretary, CMAI

WHY?

- Bring together Christian health professionals for a time of fellowship and renewal
- Reflect on the theme to bring about social justice, peace and healing in our country.
- Set CMAI's priorities, strategic plan for the coming years, chart new directions and reaffirm our commitment.
- Strengthen the work of member institutions through sharing of experiences.

FOR WHOM?

For Health Professionals: The conference is open to all Christian health professionals, both members and non members, from government, private, mission hospitals and other sectors.

For Students: In order to encourage young people to be vibrant participants in the healing ministry, CMAI is holding special sessions for students.
