

How to Apply

Application materials must be submitted electronically. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Program Directors will review the applications and make final selections. Visit www.cmai.org or email to cmaibl@cmαι.org for instructions.

Applications from Training institutions for CMAI HSSC Affiliation

- A cover letter describing in brief about the institution, names of the courses applied for and mention CMAI membership number.
- Filled in "Training Provider Application Form" along with all the prescribed supporting documents.
- Curriculum vitae of the Proposed Trainer.

Applications from Individuals for Short Term Training

- A cover letter addressed to the HOD of the training center mentioning the course applied for along with correspondence address and phone number.
- Filled in "Admission Form" as prescribed by the training center along with all the supporting documents.

CMAI - HSSC Short Term Training Program

Christian Medical Association of India
HVS Court, III Floor, 21 Cunningham
Road, Bangalore - 560 052
Phone: (080) 22205465/5837
Email: cmaibl@cmαι.org

COMPETITIVE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR 21ST CENTURY LEADERS IN ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES

The Short Term Training Program offers the opportunity for competitive career oriented Allied Health Professionals from India to qualify them in various skills to improve health. Participants will engage with experts in the field and learn in competitive environment.

Be prepared for the challenge of building a just and healthy society!

Key Information:

- Application invited from Institutions to be affiliated to CMAI & HSSC.
- Application invited from students to enroll in the courses offered.
- Students will be awarded CMAI & HSSC Certificate promoted by National Skills Development Corporation.

SHORT TERM TRAINING IN ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES

Christian Medical Association of India and Healthcare Sector Skill
Council

Application invited for 2016 - 17
www.cmai.org
cmai.blr@cmαι.org

The CMAI – HSSC Short Term Training Program

CMAI in collaboration with Healthcare Sector Skill Council [HSSC] has launched the Short term Training Courses in Allied Health Sciences in line with National Council of Vocational Training (NCVT). Through the CMAI- HSSC Short term training courses the AHP Section of CMAI aims to impart skills to the youth for employment in health sector and to develop Government Accredited professional skills and practical knowledge needed for job opportunities.

Program Description

The Program provides a unique opportunity for promising, competent Allied Health Professionals from India to develop their skills and expertise in various health disciplines.

Short Term Courses offered

CMAI is offering Short Term Training in 4 different job roles namely

1. Diabetes Educator
2. General Duty Assistant
3. Medical Lab Technician
4. Vision Technician

CMAI HSSC Affiliated Institutions

This program is offered in 11 training centers situated in the states of Andhra Pradesh, Gujarat, Nagaland, Tamil Nadu and Uttar Pradesh. These training centers are affiliated to the Health Sector Skill Council and the National Skill Development Corporation, Delhi. Through its existing network, CMAI has initiated for multi-level engagement and impactful skill development effort.

1. Arogyavaram Medical Centre, AP
2. Scudder Memorial Hospital, TN
3. DDMM Institute of Cardiology, Gujarat
4. CSI Rainy Multi-Specialty Hospital, TN
5. CSI Multi Speciality Hospital, Kancheepuram, TN
6. Schieffelin Institute of Health –Research & Leprosy Centre, TN
7. International Centre for Eye Health Joseph Eye Hospital, TN
8. Bejan Singh Eye Hospital, TN
9. SEESHA Karunya Community Hospital, TN
10. Christian Institute of Head Sciences & Research, Nagaland
11. Naujhil Integrated Rural Project for Health and Development (NIRPHAD), UP

Who Should Apply

Applicants must be/have:

- Highly motivated individuals who wish to work in Allied Health Services and enhance their ability to assist and serve.

- Applicants should have completed Plus two or equivalent with Science subjects.
- Creative and committed to interdisciplinary and collaborative work.

Participants will:

- Develop applied skills in the areas of expertise in Allied Health Sciences.
- Confidently implement and conduct various skills in the profession.
- Enhance their understanding and knowledge in various skills.
- Expand their interdisciplinary professional networks.

CMAI is a Not-for-Profit Organization established in 1905. It has over 9000 members including Doctors, Nurses, Allied health professionals, Administrators and Chaplains and over 330 health institutions. Since 1963 CMAI offers professional training in various Allied Health Sciences through 27 different courses implemented in more than 50 health institutions across the country. CMAI trained AHPs are employed at all levels of health sector in India, Central Asia, Europe and the US.

HSSC is a Not-for-Profit Organization registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, promoted by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), National Skills Development Corporation (NSDC).